

Secretary's Award for an Outstanding School Initiative 2018

The Secretary's Award for an Outstanding School Initiative is a prestigious award presented to NSW public schools demonstrating via a discreet program, event or initiative their commitment to teaching and learning outcomes, leadership, supporting the students and/or creating a sustainable learning environment.

This Information Pack will answer your questions about the award, eligibility and selection criteria for the award.

Who can apply?

Any individual NSW public school or a group of schools is eligible to apply for the award.

What are the selection criteria?

The Award recognises the school's outstanding achievement in delivering a program, event or initiative.

As an example, the program can demonstrate:

- Achievement of significant improvement in learning outcomes and opportunities
- Excellence in student learning initiatives
- Maximising learning opportunities for all students
- Community leadership

How to nominate?

All nominations for this award are now accepted by the Public Education Foundation's online application system. To access this system visit www.publiceducationfoundation.org.au/scholarships and click on the relevant award.

Prior to starting the online process, the nominator may prefer to gather the necessary information ready to submit:

- School details (including name of principal and person preparing the nomination)
- Details of group of schools if more than one school is involved in the initiative (including school name, principal name, Director PSNSW name)
- Project information to be uploaded as an attachment in word or pdf including:
 - Project summary (400 words describing project with evidence of success)
 - Project description (400 words describing how the project has contributed to achieving outcome(s) stated in the school plan)
- Principal's endorsement (the Principal will be sent an email requesting them to endorse the nomination)

A sample exemplar nomination form can be found on our website. This example is to be used for reference only and not replicated in whole or part. It is intended to give you a starting point for understanding the elements of a successful application.

Who selects the recipients?

It is anticipated that the selection panel will include representatives from the NSW Department of Education, the Public Education Foundation and an independent representative from the education sector. All applicants will be reviewed according to the criteria set out. Recommended nominees will then be presented to the Secretary, Department of Education, for award selection.

When is the closing date for applications?

Applications close at 11.59pm on Tuesday 19 June 2018. No late applications will be considered.
