

UNA MAY SMITH SCHOLARSHIP

The Public Education Foundation's Una May Smith Scholarship supports Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander students to participate in and successfully complete schooling and progress to tertiary education and/or training.

The scholarship is named in honour of Una May Smith of Coogee. Miss Una May Smith was an Aboriginal woman whose career in education had involvement with La Perouse Public School over a number of years. Miss Smith generously bequeathed part of her estate for the establishment of this scholarship.

The recipient will receive the scholarship for as long as they remain enrolled in a public school or tertiary institution, shows reasonable academic progress and continues to meet the conditions of the scholarship. The scholarship can be tailored over time to meet the specific circumstances, interests, and learning needs of the recipient. It will be shaped by the needs of the student with support and input from relevant parties which may include from the School Principal, the Foundation and/or the Aboriginal Education Consultative Group.

The scholarship will provide financial support to cover education expenses for the student up to the following amounts;

Year 1	$2,000
Years 2 - 5	$1,000
Year 6	$2,000
Year 7	$3,000
Years 8 – 9	$2,000
Years 10 – 12	$4,000
Tertiary Education (maximum 4 years)	$5,000

The scholarship is to cover educational expenses such as:

- Literacy and/or numeracy support
- Stationery and text books
- Face to face or online tutoring
- Uniforms and school shoes (including school sports clothing)
- Laptop, iPad or other similar devices
- Printer
- Internet connection for study at home
- School excursions and school camps
- Furniture for study such as desk, chair, lamp etc

If a student leaves public school before the end of Year 12, the scholarship will lapse. If the student does not continue to tertiary education, no other support will be provided. Any unspent monies at the end of the scholarship period must be refunded to the Public Education Foundation scholarship fund.

Before applying for this scholarship, please ensure that you read the scholarship terms and conditions available on our website at www.publiceducationfoundation.org.au/scholarship-awards-terms

HOW TO APPLY

To apply for the Una May Smith Scholarship, students can access the link to the online portal via the Foundation's website - <http://www.publiceducationfoundation.org.au/scholarships>

Please note that all applications are now received via the Foundation's online portal. You will need to sign up for a FluidReview account to access the form.

Prior to starting your application, you should compile the following information ready to submit:

- Applicant details including:
 - full name
 - gender
 - date of birth
 - phone number
 - address
 - email (please ensure you nominate an email account you regularly access)
- Residence status

- Parent/guardian details (at least one but up to two)
 - name
 - phone number
 - relationship to student
 - email (please ensure you nominate an email account you regularly access)
- School details:

- A personal reference from an Aboriginal community member which addresses the selection criteria (PDF or Word format, maximum 400 words)
- A supporting statement from your Principal (the Principal will be sent an email requesting them to complete a statement of support)

Note for Community Member references: It is critical that the Aboriginal community member reference is specific and supportive of the student. Generic references will disadvantage an applicant.

Note for Principals: Please be aware that your statement is a critical component of the application form and your feedback is given considerable weight in the process of panel deliberations. The panels are looking for feedback that goes well beyond simple confirmation that the student is enrolled in your school.

SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION

Once you have finalised your application and all elements are complete (including references and supporting statements as required) you can submit it for review.

Applications must be submitted by 11.59pm on Tuesday 24 September 2019.
