By submitting your entry you agree you have read and are bound by the competition rules. Please ensure you have read the Competition Rules below before sending your email.

Competition Rules

1. The student is enrolled and attending a public school in any Australian state or territory.
2. Entries must align with the theme.
3. The artwork should be presented on paper either A4 (297 mm x 210 mm) or A3 (420 mm x 297 mm) in size and in either landscape or portrait orientation. This will then allow you to scan it and email the file.
4. The artwork may be done in pencil, crayon, felt tip, paint, or by using computer drawing or design software in 2D only.
5. We will not accept entries that used additional materials to create 3D effects, including glitter-type materials.

6. Participants need to complete the information required when emailing through the entry.
7. Entries must be the participants' original artworks that have not been published before, nor submitted for other competitions, and must not infringe intellectual property rights.
8. All entries become the property of the Public Education Foundation Ltd and, whether selected or not, will not be returned upon submission.
9. The Public Education Foundation Ltd assumes the right to edit, alter, publish, reuse, distribute, or exhibit the artworks in any manner whatsoever, including for publicity and educational purposes.
10. Staff and their family members of Public Education Foundation Ltd are not permitted to participate.
11. The organiser's decisions on the competition results are final.
12. All personal information collected by the Public Education Foundation Ltd will only be used in matters relating to the "Design a Card Competition" which includes for publicity and promotional purposes.
13. The Public Education Foundation Ltd reserves all the rights to change the competition rules, regulations, prizes and other arrangements without prior notice.
14. Entries close Wednesday 4 November 2020

Judging

The judges may disqualify an entry if they have reason to believe that it does not comply with the entry. The judges retain the right not to select a winner in each category if no suitable entry is entered. Judging will be made in line with the 'Competition Rules', so make sure you have read them thoroughly!

Finalists and winners

Three individuals will be contacted via email and announced on this website in late November (date TBC). Please ensure you submit a valid email address with your entry.

Prizes

Prizes for each of the three individuals are:

- Printing of their design for 2020 Christmas cards, including recognition of their and their schools participation. The individual students name will be published on the inside of the card, along with a brief paragraph of how their design came about. The school logo will also appear.
- The recipient will receive 25 printed cards of their design and the school will receive 100 printed cards of their students design.
- There will also be a write-up and photo of all the winners published on the Public Education Foundation website, on social media, and in our newsletter.
